SWITZERLAND

Home to an unimaginably luxurious spa, covering 1,000 m<sup>2</sup>, and an on-site lake surrounded by idyllic alpine wilds

Recharge to Full at Your Own Wellness and Ski Retreat in the Mountains

No one leaves Crans-Montana a little bit in love – it leaves you completely awe-struck. Positioned in the altitude of Plateau de Plan-Mayens in the Swiss Alps, this haven of two private ski-in and ski-out chalets can be enjoyed by multi-generational families and groups of friends.

Know that nothing is done in half measures here, with an on-site lake, a quartz-clear swimming pool that mirrors the mountains beyond and a heavenly spa, covering 1,000m<sup>2</sup>, that much larger hotels couldn't claim to match.

The Concept

Crans-Montana has sights that are food for the soul. Here in the mountains, their ultra-luxurious and private chalets, which can be reserved together or by themselves, go above and beyond accommodating a large group of up to 38 guests. Both have access to the retreat's monumental spa and outdoor pool area.

Their concierge will encourage you to make yourself feel at home, from the fully equipped gymnasium to the high-tech cinema, arcade room and social areas that call for celebrations of life after a day in the mountains. The in-house chef, masseuse, and front of house caretakers are there to make your stay as hands-free as you would like.

And, by winter, there's no better place for avid skiers. Their ski-in and ski-out facilities make heading out onto the slopes just as enjoyable as coming home. Ski lessons are available for those who haven't yet found their legs.

Wellness

Investing in self-care is easy when you stay at Crans-Montana. It's home to an unimaginably luxurious spa, covering 1,000m<sup>2</sup>, and an on-site lake surrounded by idyllic alpine wilds. Rejuvenate in the sauna, hammam, fitness gym, Jacuzzi and heated outdoor pool. It's all brought to life by Baccarat crystal chandeliers and Kelsey Grey and Bahia Blanca marbles.

They will personalise detox and immune-boosting treatments to your body's exact needs. You can also request on-demand treatments for aesthetics and clinical needs.

Culinary Moments

You don't even need to step inside the kitchen. Choose your menu and it will be served on the artistically decorated dining table, or next to the pool, for you and your guests by a personal chef. Sunset Aperol barbecues, toasty winter feasts, and their famously extravagant breakfasts, anything's possible.
