The magic of Megève
through their eyes

An Intimate Chalet Primed for Entertainment in the Alps

All notions of a traditional chalet slip away the moment you step foot in Megève. Set in tranquil French wilds, looking out to horse-dotted pastures and the snow-tipped peak of Mont Blanc, this exquisite pair of private chalets have been designed with multigenerational families or large groups of friends in mind.

There's everything from an arcade room, underground private nightclub, stocked wine cellar, a gymnasium, and a full spa with a hammam, a massage room and dedicated hairdresser facilities.

Put simply, there's no other mountain retreat around that offers this much fun.

Once conceived as the French alternative to St. Moritz, Megève has carved an identity of its own. Forget life's everyday woes while indulging in head-to-toe massages, chef-prepared barbecues on the terrace, or while heading out for days of blissful skiing in Mont D'arbois, Rochebrune or Le Jaillet. They have 325 kilometres of tree-lined pistes for you to explore at your own leisure.

Fun is never forgotten
at Megève

The Concept

Megève reflects its surroundings. Hints of which you will find in the hand-carved woods and bronze fireplaces, leather-padded headboards, and marble touches. It's all curated with the beige and gold tones.

Plus, you have access to our concierge, so whether it's a chef rustling up a last-minute celebratory dinner, or the front of house mapping a walking trail for you, your stay will be fine-tuned.

ULTIMA MEGÈVE

Wellness

Our spa may steal your hours away. Like a stairway to heaven, it connects both chalets while also opening to the picturesque outside deck and Jacuzzi area. We could invite dedicated professionals to provide massages in the treatment rooms, host pamper parties for the children, or make you feel your absolute best in the beauty and hairdressing area. Plus, there's an indoor-outdoor pool with statement views of the mountain range beyond.

Culinary Moments

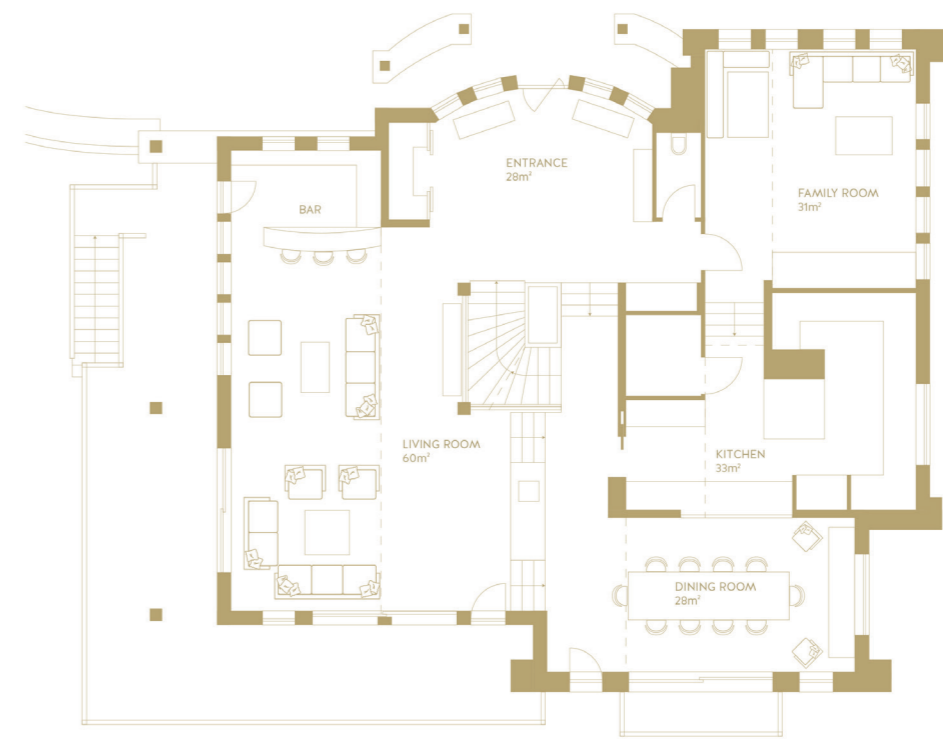

The charming dining room and outdoor terraces overlooking Mont Blanc are picture-perfect spaces for entertaining – not forgetting the well-stocked wine cellar to fuel any late nights. Your concierge is there to arrange private chef experiences or make reservations, however last minute, at mountain restaurants where life is enjoyed at a slower pace.
