

The image shows the interior of a luxury ski chalet. The ceiling is made of dark, rustic wooden beams, creating a warm and cozy atmosphere. Large windows and a glass door offer a panoramic view of a mountain range with snow-capped peaks and evergreen trees. The furniture includes a large, tufted leather sofa in the foreground, several armchairs, and a coffee table with a vase of flowers. The floor is made of light-colored wood. The overall aesthetic is modern yet traditional, typical of high-end alpine architecture.

Take Your Skiing to New Heights on Courchevel's Sunniest Slopes

Courchevel Belvédère couldn't be any closer to the slope. Their resort is made up of 13 ski-in and ski-out residences with privileged, uninterrupted views of the forested mountains. Balance days of skiing with mind-soothing treatments in their world-class spas, private chef experiences, and moments in the elegant restaurant and lobby cocktail area.

They're found in the glorious Sunny Valley at an altitude of 1750; a short journey away from 1850 and 1650's lively bar and restaurant scene. Break away from the crowds to a retreat with bubbling outdoor pools, atmospheric fitness rooms, and talented massage therapists whenever the moment calls.

The Concept

Ski-in and ski-out of your private residence onto the Belvédère slopes and experience five-star service. Butlers, chauffeurs, and personal chefs are there to handle even the most spontaneous of requests. It's perfect for a family or group of friends looking to savour their precious time together.

Each residence comprises four or five bedrooms that sleep up to eight to ten adults. What's truly special about this property is its location amongst three different valleys: connecting to the upscale 1850 and the edge of the La Rosière Forest. Natural beauty is not in short supply.

At night, gaze at piste bashers glowing in the dark, grooming those same runs to perfection again. Your top floor opens directly to the terrace area that backs onto the slope. Here, your dedicated butler will place your skis each morning to waste not one minute of adventure.
